

God's deep secrets revealed!

“That is what the Scriptures mean when they say, “No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him.”¹⁰ But it was to us that God revealed these things by his Spirit. For his Spirit searches out everything and shows us God's deep secrets.”

1 Corinthians 2:9-10 NLT

The revealed will of God

“He will glorify and honor Me, because He (the Holy Spirit) will take from what is Mine and will disclose it to you.¹⁵ All things that the Father has are Mine. Because of this I said that He [the Spirit] will take from what is Mine and will reveal it to you.”

John 16:14-15 AMP

So when Jesus said, “He [the Holy Spirit] shall glorify me...,” He expressly meant that the Holy Spirit's role is to :

praise enthusiastically, magnify, glorify, and worship Him. In fact, one of the Holy Spirit's chief roles is to give adulation =(excessive admiration)and fame to Jesus — to glorify that name that is exalted above every other name (Philippians 2:9).

The Spirit of God doesn't seek to draw attention to Himself in any way. Rather, He points everyone toward Jesus and leads us in rapturous worship of our exalted Savior.

Because the Holy Spirit is an invisible, non-material Spirit Being, He cannot glorify Jesus in the way the Lord desires without using someone as a vessel through which to work.

By now, I'm sure you can guess that the vessel He chooses is the one in which He lives — you!

How does the Holy Spirit fulfil His responsibility to glorify Jesus through you?

He heals the sick, casts out demons, leads lost people to a saving knowledge of Jesus, and leads us into the promises established in the will and word of The Father.

Life In abundance as described in;

John 10:10Amp, “The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it in abundance [to the full, till it overflows].”

We were designed to overflow

“You become my delicious feast even when my enemies dare to fight. You anoint me with the fragrance of your Holy Spirit; you give me all I can drink of you until my heart overflows. 6 So why would I fear the future? For your goodness and love pursue me all the days of my life. Then afterward, when my life is through, I’ll return to your glorious presence to be forever with you!”

Psalms 23:5-6 TPT

Paul used the word naos (“temple”) in First Corinthians 6:19 “Have you forgotten that your body is now the sacred temple of the Spirit of Holiness, who lives in you? You don’t belong to yourself any longer, for the gift of God, the Holy Spirit, lives inside your sanctuary.”

1 Corinthians 6:19 TPT

to describe us, he was painting a very different and much more magnificent picture of our spiritual interiors.

The Holy Spirit performed the ultimate miracle when He came to dwell in our hearts. He came to occupy our spirits, which were dead in trespasses and sins (see Ephesians 2:1) “And his fullness fills you, even though you were once like corpses, dead in your sins and offences.”

Ephesians 2:1 TPT

And then He quickened us together with Christ (Ephesians 2:5). “Even when we were dead and doomed in our many sins, he united us into the very life of Christ and saved us by his wonderful grace!”

Ephesians 2:5 TPT

In that miraculous moment, He created us to be like God in righteousness and true holiness (Ephesians 4:24). “And to be transformed as you embrace the glorious Christ-within as your new life and live in union with him! For God has re-created you all over again in his perfect righteousness, and you now belong to him in the realm of true holiness.”

Ephesians 4:24 TPT

The work inside us was so glorious and perfect that when it was all finished, He declared we were His workmanship created in Christ Jesus (Ephesians 2:10). “We have become his poetry, a re-created people that will fulfill the destiny he has given each of us, for we are joined to Jesus, the Anointed One. Even before we were born, God planned in advance our destiny and the good works we would do to fulfil it!”

Ephesians 2:10 TPT

From start to finish, we were apprehended by Him, regenerated by Him, and moulded and fashioned to be a magnificent temple, fit for the Spirit of God Himself to make His permanent habitation.

The change in our previously dead spiritual nature is truly miraculous. He resurrected it with glory and power and recreated us to contain the revelation, holiness, splendour, righteousness, the fruit of the Spirit, the gifts of the Spirit, and the life and character of Christ. He adorned our inner man until, spiritually speaking, we became a shrine unto God!

Inwardly we are so beautiful and magnificently created that Almighty God, through His Spirit, is willing to take up permanent residency within us. What kind of home do you think God would require?

Would He desire a shabby shack of dirt and sticks? No! He has built for Himself an unspeakably beautiful temple, fit for His glory, within our hearts!

However, one of the most effective, magnificent avenues through which He glorifies Jesus is in those moments when your heart is full, your hands are raised, and your whole being is caught up in worshipping Jesus the Lord.
